

THA PHAE GATE REPLICA

THE ICONIC GATEWAY OF CHIANG MAI

Tha Phae Gate is the historic eastern entrance to Chiang Mai's Old City. Built in the 13th century as part of the ancient walls, it once served as a key gateway for trade and travel. Today, it stands as a symbol of the city's heritage and a lively space where culture, history, and daily life come together.

Secret Garden, Level 1

KAD MUA

TRADITIONAL LANNA MARKET

A "Kad Mua" is a traditional Northern Thai market that reflects the simple village lifestyle of the Lanna people. Local vendors bring together a variety of homemade food, crafts, and everyday goods, creating a lively and authentic cultural atmosphere. It is a place where visitors can experience local flavors, traditions, and the charm of community life.

Daily from 5.30 p.m. - 7.30 p.m.
Secret Garden, Level 1

WATER DRAGON JARS

SYMBOLS OF WATER AND BLESSINGS

Water dragon jars are traditional Thai ceramic containers, often decorated with dragon motifs symbolizing strength, protection, and good fortune. Historically used to store water, they reflect the importance of water in daily life and culture. During Songkran, they represent purity, renewal, and the sharing of blessings for the New Year.

Pool, Level 1

